ATLANTA

- Rathbun's (Contemporary Southern): 112 Krog Street, Suite R, Inman Park; (404) 524-8280 or www.rathbunsrestaurant.com. Chicken livers never had it so good--paired with fig molasses as an appetizer. If you're really hungry, go for the 20-ounce bone-in rib eye. Otherwise, try the Sea Scallop Benedict on Country Ham Grits with asparagus and spiced hollandaise. Dinner (closed Sunday).

The Atlantic Seafood Company (Seafood): 2345 Mansell Road, Alpharetta; (770) 640-0488 or www.atlanticseafoodco.com. Diners are drawn by the fresh seafood, but find it hard to pass up dessert. We dream about the Passion Fruit Trifle, with layers of passion fruit curd and ladyfingers soaked in raspberry syrup. Lunch, dinner.

- Mary Mac's Tea Room (Traditional Southern): 224 Ponce De Leon Avenue NE.; (404) 876-1800 or www.marymacs.com. On your first visit, the Turnip Green and Pot Likker Soup with cornbread is complimentary. Try a selection of the cooked-from-fresh-daily vegetables, or enjoy Southern favorites such as Roast Pork with Dressing and Gravy or Chicken Pot Pie. Lunch, dinner.
